Purpose, Powers and Capacities of Municipalities

The Canadian Constitution delegates responsibility for municipal institutions to the provinces. The province of Alberta provides structure and the primary set of rules for municipal operation by statute with the Municipal Government Act (MGA). According to the MGA, the purposes of a municipality are:

- to provide good government,
- to foster the well-being of the environment,
- to foster the economic development of the municipality,
- to provide services, facilities or other things that, in the opinion of council, are necessary or desirable for all or a part of the municipality,
- to develop and maintain safe and viable communities, and
- to work collaboratively with neighbouring municipalities.

Municipalities provide essential services to residents that they serve, such as road maintenance, water and wastewater utilities, waste management, and emergency management.

Local Government

The council is the governing body of the municipal corporation and the custodian of its powers, both legislative and administrative. The MGA provides that councils can only exercise the powers of the municipal corporation in the proper form, either by bylaw or resolution.

Under the MGA, councillors have the duty to:

- consider the welfare and interests of the municipality as a whole and bring to council's attention anything that would promote the welfare or interests of the municipality,
- participate generally in developing and evaluating the policies and programs of the municipality,
- participate in council meetings and council committee meetings and meetings of other bodies to which they are appointed by the council,
- obtain information about the operation or administration of the municipality from the chief administrative officer,
- keep in confidence matters discussed in private at a council meeting until discussed at a meeting held in public, and
- perform any other duty or function imposed on councillors by this or any other enactment or by the council.

A councillor is elected to look after the interests of the entire municipality. While the Municipal District of Fairview No. 136 is divided into five (5) Wards, a Councillor must be careful not to place the interest of their ward or electoral district above the interest of the whole municipality. Council's effectiveness depends on councillors providing input on their areas while thinking and voting for the whole municipality.

Chief Elected Official (CEO)

For the Municipal District of Fairview No. 136, the Chief Elected Official (CEO) is the Reeve. The Reeve, in addition to performing a councillor's duties, must preside when attending a council meeting, unless a bylaw provides otherwise. The Reeve must also perform any other duty imposed under the MGA or any other enactment. In practice, the Reeve is generally the main spokesperson for the Municipality, unless that duty is delegated to another councillor.

In a municipal district, council appoints the Reeve from among the councillors unless it passes a bylaw providing that the official is to be elected by a vote of the municipality's electors.

The role of the Reeve, unless a bylaw says otherwise, includes:

- chairperson of council,
- consensus seeker amongst members of council,
- liaison with senior elected officials,
- key representative with regard to ceremonial responsibilities,
- liaison with other levels of government, and
- advice with regard to policy development.

A Deputy Reeve will assume this role if the Reeve is not available.

Chief Administrative Officer (CAO)

Every council must establish, by bylaw, a position of CAO. The CAO is the administrative head of the municipality, and responsibilities include:

- ensuring that the municipality's policies and programs are implemented,
- advising and informing the council on the operation of the municipality,
- performing other duties assigned by the council, and
- ensuring appropriate staffing is in place.

Councillors work with the CAO to keep informed on what the municipality is doing and will depend on the administration to provide information so they can make sound decisions.

Designated Officers

A CAO may delegate any of their powers, duties, or functions to a designated officer or to another employee. Designated officer positions are established by bylaw and are subject to the CAO's supervision, unless otherwise provided by bylaw. A designated officer may also further delegate to an employee of the municipality any of those powers, duties or functions.

Time Commitment & Workload

Term

Councillors elected in the 2025 municipal election will serve a four-year term and it is generally considered.

Time Commitment and Workload

The time commitment for councillors depends on their position and appointments, but it is generally considered a part-time commitment for the Municipal District of Fairview No. 136.

Councillors are required to attend:

- Regular Council Meetings on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of every month (9:00 a.m.),
- Special Council Meetings,
- Committee/Board Meetings (listing posted on the website at www.mdfairview.ca), and
- Conferences, conventions, seminars and workshops for training and discussion.

Other tasks include (but are not limited to):

- Preparing for meetings,
- Attending municipal or public events on behalf of the Municipality,
- Engaging with municipal residents and other relevant stakeholders,
- Making public appearances on behalf of the Municipality, and
- Conducting research relating to bylaw and policy development, and other governance functions.

Councillor Compensation

Compensation

Councillors receive compensation in accordance with Municipal Policy ADM26 - Per Diem and Expense, which is available on the municipal website at: www.mdfairview.ca.

At present, councillors receive base compensation (Regular Council Meetings, Supervision Days, and Other Days), in addition to per diems for Special Council Meetings, Board and Committee Meetings and other related tasks. Further, they have the opportunity to enroll in a cost-shared (municipal portion: 75%, councillor portion: 25%) benefits program and are reimbursed for mileage, meals and accommodations (when conducting municipal business).

Compensation is presented in the Annual Audited Financial Statements, which are posted online at: www.mdfairview.ca. In 2023, councillor Compensation was as follows:

Division	Salary	Allowances	Expenses	Total
Reeve	48,693	5,351	7,992	62,036
Ward 1	36,700	5,351	9,868	51,919
Ward 3	42,000	5,548	11,522	59,070
Ward 4	31,000	5,351	6,117	42,568
Ward 5/6	27,500	5,351	7,089	39,940

Councillor compensation is heavily dependent on a number of factors, including (but not limited to) whether a councillor is the Chief Elected Official (Reeve), the location of a Councillor's residence, the number of Committees and Boards to which a Councillor is appointed, and the number of conferences, conventions and other events a councillor attends. That being said, the compensation as depicted in Annual Audited Financial Statements serves an illustrative purpose, as opposed to a guarantee of compensation if successfully elected.
